

week. That is all. And you want the same thing too. You may ultimately vote against 715, as I assume Senator Abboud is going to do. I don't know what Senator Harris is going to do. But at least we ought to have the chance to vote on the bills next week with the little $90,000 appropriation bill that accompanies it.

PRESIDENT: Senator DeCamp, do you wish to be recognized?

SENATOR DECAMP: Mr. President, as I understand it, and I would submit that in these waning days or waning months of this session these rules on how many votes it requires for things change quicker than anything I have seen in my entire life. But as I understand it, if the A bill dies or it fails to advance, it dies automatically because it has failed to advance twice. Then if you take the context of the rules, it would appear to me under the rules either that 715 could not be read on Final, number one, or, number two, if it is going to be read, would require at a minimum a suspension of the rules which requires 30 votes, or in the alternative, if passed, there would be serious questions as to whether it could legally be implemented. So I think it is more significant. I think it is a major deciding vote at least on whether 715A does or does not advance. And I just throw that out as food for thought whatever your attitude is on the bill itself.

PRESIDENT: Is there further discussion on 715A? If not, the motion is to advance the bill. A machine vote has been requested. All those in favor vote aye, opposed vote nay. Have you all voted? Record the vote, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 28 ayes, 9 nays, Mr. President, on the motion to advance LB 715A.

PRESIDENT: LB 715A is advanced. Do you have anything for the record at this time, Mr. Clerk?

CLERK: Yes, sir, I do. Mr. President, I have a Report of Registered Lobbyists for the week of May 3 through May 8. (See page 2194 of the Legislative Journal.)

The Public Works Committee reports favorably upon the appointments of Dayle Williamson and Daniel Meyer to respective positions. (See pages 2194-95 of the Legislative Journal.)
